

AT&T Mobility Workers are Standing up to FIGHT FOR GOOD JOBS Will You Stand With Them?

Send a message to AT&T Mobility Stop Destroying Good Jobs

AT&T Mobility made billions in profits last year and CEO Randall Stephenson took home nearly $17 million in 2015. But when it comes to the workers who made that success possible, the company says it will cut jobs.

AT&T Mobility plans to eliminate jobs at corporate stores and have third party vendors like GameStop sell their product. The third party vendors will pay half the wages the AT&T Mobility salespeople earn now.

Meanwhile AT&T Mobility continues to close call centers and send jobs to lower wage areas in the U.S. and other countries.

That's not right. The Communications Workers of America and AT&T Mobility begin bargaining January 25 on a new contract.

Tell AT&T Mobility CEO Randall Stephenson to do the right thing and negotiate a fair contract now. Help protect good jobs, not corporate greed.

Email AT&T CEO Randall L Stephenson NOW

randall.stephenson@att.com

Tell him that you stand with AT&T Mobility workers in their fight to protect good jobs.

Let him know that you expect him to treat the workers right and negotiate a fair contract.
